

We Are Family

A guide to nurturing the child and pet relationship from pregnancy to Preschool

Prepare your pet and home

Our pets need to be prepared for the baby's arrival. You may need to change their routines and environment.

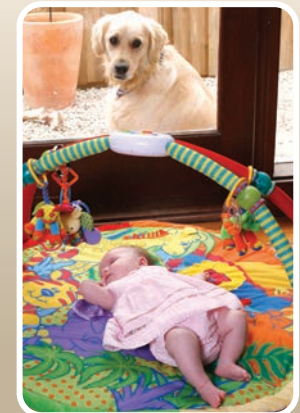

Actively supervise

Supervise all interaction between your pet and child. This means that you can intervene without delay.

Securely separate

Separate the pet and child when you cannot actively supervise. Most dog attacks occur in the home.

We Are Family

www.wearefamily.vic.gov.au
Customer Service 1800 000 776

